

KAISER, ANGRY AT CHINA, WILL SEEK REPRISAL

He "Reserves Right to Act" Regarding Alleged Neutrality Breach.

MAY ASK NEW LAND WHEN WAR IS OVER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Notes that have been exchanged between Germany and China, copies of which have been received in Washington, show that Germany has threatened to make China pay for her failure to prevent the Japanese from entering the Chinese territory.

Germany complains that this was a violation of her neutrality and that she has been kept supplied with arms and munitions by Germany.

This is taken to mean that if Korea is secured from Germany in the present struggle, the Kaiser, when peace is restored, will insist if he has the power to do so upon the cession by China of other Chinese territory to Germany.

Depends on Outcome. Of course, the Kaiser's ability to carry out such a threat will depend altogether upon what condition his government is in after the war is over.

The German note to China, in which Austria's conduct was being dealt with, was dated on September 1. It was received in Peking on September 14.

China Offered Objections. The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

Japan refused to prevent the Japanese troops landing at Longkou, constituting a violation of neutrality.

The Chinese reply to Germany's first note was unsatisfactory to the Kaiser, as it indicated by the following words: "The Chinese government is not prepared to allow Japanese troops to land on Chinese soil."

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

The Chinese government in replying to Germany's note pointed out that China did not object to the landing of Japanese troops on Chinese soil.

HOW DO YOU PRONOUNCE IT?

Several readers have written to THE SUN requesting the publication of a key to the pronunciation of some of the places mentioned frequently in the war despatches.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

The French U sound (equivalent to the German U with umlaut mark) has no equivalent in English.

B. Altman & Co.

THE NEW TWELVE-STORY ADDITION FRONTING ON MADISON AVENUE, by the erection of which the Store of B. Altman & Co. now covers an entire square block, will shortly be opened to the public.

Extensive preparations are being made to render the occasion a memorable one. Very large and comprehensive assortments of new merchandise for the Autumn and Winter seasons have been secured, and in part are already being shown.

There will be a new entrance on Madison Avenue in addition to the entrances already existing on Fifth Avenue, Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth streets.

EXCEPTIONAL VALUES WILL BE OFFERED IN THESE MONDAY SALES

A Sale of Women's Coats in smart styles and fabrics, will offer especially good values at these prices:

Cheviot Coats in black or navy blue; three-quarter length; lined throughout, at $22.50

The new assortments of Imported and American-made Coats and Wraps for the Autumn and Winter seasons are now being displayed.

An Unusual Offering of Fine Imported Tailor Serge (a shipment just received) in black and dark blue, at the special price of per yard 88c.

Girls' Coats for Autumn and Winter Wear (sizes 6 to 16 years), in an unusually attractive selection which presents only the newest styles, materials and colors, will be specially priced at $7.75, 9.85, 11.25 & 12.75

Riding Habits and Sports Suits for Autumn and Winter made in B. Altman & Co.'s own workrooms, located in the establishment, are shown in the Department on the Third Floor.

The Fur Department has ready for selection a remarkably interesting assortment of Fur Trimmings, including all those which Fashion has decreed are to be the vogue.

French Lingerie A large and important shipment has just been received and is now being shown. Among the great number of dainty garments comprising it are many effective novelties; and a special feature is an attractive selection of Night Robes in silk and crepe de Chine.

The New Importations of Fasso Corsets designed and made in Paris by expert French corsetieres exclusively for B. Altman & Co. have now been received.

The Latest Fashions in Gowns, Suits, Riding Habits and Mourning Attire, now being displayed in this greatly enlarged and newly-arranged Department, represent the smartest productions of the leading Paris couturiers.

Women's Ready-to-wear Dep't (Third Floor) The prices are attractively moderate and the most courteous attention is assured.

Thirty-fourth Street Fifth Avenue, New York City

JAPANESE PROMPT TO DEFEND ARMY

Deny That Their Forces Were Brutal in China Invasion.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The Japanese Embassy issued the following statement today: "Recent cablegrams from China can only be credited with a grain of salt."

The alleged ruthless conduct of Japanese troops in Shantung said to be contained in a letter coming from Lin-chau is nothing more than a malicious canard.

A dispatch addressed to the Shantung province by a foreigner living in Peking says in part: "The rigid discipline of the Japanese army and the decorum of the rank and file are simply laudable."

After the landing of Japanese troops the citizens were at ease and calm. As to Chinese women, the Japanese are taking the most scrupulous care not to annoy them in any way.

"In fine, the Japanese soldiers are living up to their reputation as established at the close of the Russo-Japanese War and the Boer uprising. The strictest maintenance of military discipline and the utter abatement from unnecessary intemperance are their code of behavior."

Japanese Emperor Greets Soldiers. Tokyo, Sept. 26.—It was officially announced today that imperial messengers have left the capital for the front near Tientsin to carry the Emperor's greetings to the Japanese and British soldiers and sailors who are cooperating in Kiaochow.

KAISER'S GUNS CIRCLE FORTS OF ANTWERP

Continued from First Page. bombs and apparently intended to burn the fort. There was a sharp fight for possession of a bridge. The Belgian machine guns caused great havoc among the Germans, who retired on learning that another Belgian force was threatening their rear.

STATUES TO ATROCITY. Belgian Proposes Monument in Each City Where "Vandalism" Reigned.

OSTEND, Sept. 26.—A Belgian public man has issued an appeal to his countrymen to erect a monument in each city and village where atrocities have been committed. The object is to commemorate these acts and to give the names of the victims. The appeal says: "Such permanent testimony in stone or bronze will be as cruel a punishment to German pride as material indemnities."

The appeal further recommends that one hundred officers, who are deemed to be the most guilty be selected from the army that invaded Belgium and publicly executed in the principal Belgian cities, such as Louvain, Arras, Douai and Termonde, in which the crimes were perpetrated.

BELGIAN AUTO EXPLOIT. Armored Machine's Crew Nearly Annihilated Party of Germans.

LOSTON, Sept. 26.—The Daily Chronicle's correspondent at Ghent sends the following story of an exploit of a Belgian armored automobile on which a Maxim gun was mounted.

"To the north of Mlost the armored car came suddenly around the corner and ran into a party of German cavalry and cyclists. The former had dismounted and the Belgians shot down most of them before they could remount."

"Then the car started in pursuit of the cyclists, killing six. As they fled along the road, dodging shots and taking shelter behind trees when possible, four others were wounded and several captured."

The commander of the car, Lieut. Delhaix, returned to headquarters with helmets, overcoats, saddlery and cycles. He carried a crew of only four picked men. There are, however, six Belgian volunteers for these expeditions. The Germans refer to the car as a land cruiser.

WOULD IMMORTALIZE SHELLING OF CHURCH

Petrograd Paper Raises Fund for Monument to Rheims Cathedral Attack.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. PETROGRAD, via Bordeaux, September 26. The Norve Vremet has opened a subscription to raise a monument to Rheims in order to commemorate the bombardment of the cathedral.

PRINCE AGAINST ATTACK. Kaiser's Son Said Cathedral Shelling Would Be Crime.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. PARIS, Sept. 26.—Francis Thiebaut Sisson, art critic of the Temps, describing the destruction of the Rheims Cathedral, says one of the Kaiser's sons said to the members of the municipality a week before the bombardment:

"The best proof I can give you of my desire to preserve the cathedral is that I intend to have my wounded placed there. To destroy it would be a crime which I would not commit for anything in the world."

Misses' and Small Women's Autumn Dresses

representing the dominant fashions and the favored materials, will be marked at the following advantageous prices:

Street Dresses of serge at $12.50 & 17.50

Afternoon Dresses of soft satin at $19.50 & 23.50

BAVARIAN SOLDIERS ON TRIAL. They Are Accused of Aiding French Soldiers in Escape.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—The Exchange Telegraph Company's correspondent at Ostend says that a court of inquiry is sitting in Brussels to investigate charges that a number of Bavarian soldiers assisted in the escape of several thousand French prisoners from Brussels.

The Bavarian soldiers accused are under arrest, the correspondent says, and are greatly incensed at the accusations.

No confirmation of the story from other sources has been obtained.

$250,000 PAID TO LUXEMBURG. Copenhagen, Sept. 26.—It is reported here that Germany has already paid to the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg $250,000 as partial compensation for the damage resulting from the violation of its neutrality.

It has also promised to respect the integrity of the Grand Duchy and to make full compensation for all damage.

"77" For Grip, Influenza, Coughs, Sore Throat

COLDS "I have used Humphreys' 'Seventy-seven,' Grip and Cold Remedy for eight years, and have given it to others and find it to be all that you claim."

"Send me free, Dr. Humphreys' Medical Book," writes a British Columbian.

To break up a cold take "Seventy-seven" at the first sneeze or shiver.

If you wait till your bones begin to ache, till the cold becomes settled and hangs on, it may take longer.

Two sizes, 25c. and $1.00, at all druggists or mailed. Humphreys' Home Medicine Co., 156 William Street, New York—Ad.